Students are required to pass every course in the Practical Nursing Certificate curriculum plan. A passing grade is defined as a "C" (74) in class work and a passing grade in clinical performance. If a course is failed, the student cannot continue in the program.

CORI
(Criminal Offenders Record Information)

GCC requires that Practical Nursing Certificate students meet the requirements of a CORI check. Students who fail to meet the requirements of GCC will not be able to begin or continue in the program.

Applicants also need to know that individuals with a record of conviction by a Court of Law will be required to provide a complete explanation to the Board of Registration in Nursing on order to be permitted to take the licensing examination (NCLEX) after graduation.
