What happened this year in the GCC library?

JULY 2018 - JUNE 2019
You entered our doors 92,167 times, checked out 6,693 books, and asked 5,517 questions.

You accessed databases from off-campus 21,824 times, 12% more than last year.
Librarians taught 161 classes and workshops, reaching 2,483 patrons.

This year, we spent a total of 6 days, 8 hours, and 35 minutes teaching in the library classroom.

Librarians are teaching 48% more classes than 5 years ago.
When do you use the library the most?
Late morning!
You used the library and librarian help this year to:
- Locate, evaluate, use, and cite information for college research projects.
- Register to vote.
- Find books for your kids to read.
- Get help and emotional support after doing poorly on a paper or exam.
- Learn basic computer skills.
- Find a beautiful backdrop for photography projects.
- Apply for transfer to other colleges and to jobs.
- And much more.

What would you like to see in the library next year? Let us know!
