Meet GCC’s New Faculty and Staff

By Mary Mcintoc, ’82

Incoming students aren’t the only new faces at GCC this year. Here’s a brief introduction to help you get to know faculty and staff members who have joined the GCC community this fall or who have taken on new roles at the College.

AMY EHMANN, Instructor in Engineering

Educational Background: B.S. in Aerospace, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas

What most excites you about your new job? The opportunity to work on an interdisciplinary project and to learn new things.

Outside of work I enjoy: Spending time with my family, watching and reading sports events.

BOB HALL, Director of Interdisciplinary Programs

Educational Background: B.S. in Business Administration, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

What most excites you about your new job? The opportunity to teach classes of diverse student population and to help students become learners.

Outside of work I enjoy: Reading, exercising, playing golf, spending time with family.

BRAD BURBAGE, Clerk IV in Admission

Educational Background: B.A. in Liberal Arts, Franklin Pierce University

What most excites you about your new job? I am excited to join the Admissions team and be part of a great group of students.

Outside of work I enjoy: Spending time with my family, reading and attending sporting events.

BOBBY SULLIVAN, Graduate Assistant for Public Safety

Educational Background: Associate in Arts, Berkshire Community College

What most excites you about your new job? I am excited to help students navigate their way around campus.

Outside of work I enjoy: Spending time with my family, volunteering and watching sporting events.

BETSY OPPENHEIMER, Clerk II in Admissions

Educational Background: B.A. in Sociology, The College of St. Rose

What most excites you about your new job? I am excited to work in a fast-paced environment and to help students.

Outside of work I enjoy: Spending time with my family, exercising and attending sporting events.

BETH TAYLOR, Assistant Director of Student Affairs

Educational Background: B.S. in Criminal Justice, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

What most excites you about your new job? The opportunity to work with a diverse student population and to help them succeed.

Outside of work I enjoy: Spending time with my family, exercising and attending sporting events.

BRENDA BURBAGE, Clerk IV in Admission

Educational Background: B.S. in Business Administration, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

What most excites you about your new job? I am excited to work with a diverse student population and to help them succeed.

Outside of work I enjoy: Spending time with my family, exercising and attending sporting events.

CATLIN SULLIVAN, Clerk IV in Admission

Educational Background: B.S. in Business Administration, Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts

What most excites you about your new job? I am excited to work with a diverse student population and to help them succeed.

Outside of work I enjoy: Spending time with my family, exercising and attending sporting events.

CHRISTINA MCAFEE, Coordinator of GCC’s New Faculty and Staff

Educational Background: B.A. in Liberal Arts, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

What most excites you about your new job? I am excited to work with a diverse student population and to help them succeed.

Outside of work I enjoy: Spending time with my family, exercising and attending sporting events.